AMR Powersports Inc. Racing

In other parts of the world the motorcycle racing season is off to a flying start while we remain buried under several feet of snow!! Hard to believe that my first test day for the 2008 race season is scheduled for April 12 at Shannonville Motorsports Park. I wonder if we can hook up a plow blade to the front of my race bike? Below is a schedule of the Race Regional Series at Shannonville that I will compete in again this year. I hope you enjoy my articles and racing news updates and I hope to see you at the races. Please be sure to drop by our pit area and say Hi!
